Summary: An Orientation program was organized by the department on 01/11/2021 for the First Semester students for their introduction and acquaintance with the college, department and the alumni. The students were introduced in detail about the college, department and alumni through a video display of the mentioned areas of the institution explaining their past and present status. The alumni members also expressed their views and perceptions to the first semester students for their encouragement to pursue studies in zoology in this department. Through this program the students experienced a good Career Counselling opportunity for their future endeavors.
