Summary: On the eve of the 156th birth anniversary of Swami Vivekananda, a seminar was held at the Surendranath College premises on the contribution of Vivekananda towards the growth of nationalism in India. It was organised jointly by the Joka History Club, Bongaon, North 24 Parganas and the Department of History, Surendranath College. The speakers were Soumyajit Maharaj of Belur Math and Dr.Somnath Bhattacharya, Professor, Jadavpur University. Dr. Indranil Kar, Principal of Surendranath College, was present during the inauguration of the seminar. The speakers highlighted Vivekananda's role in instilling confidence and courage among the Indian youth by showing that their culture and religion was in no way inferior to that of the west. He urged the Indian youth to be strong and united and wrest freedom from colonial rule. Among the approximately 45 participants were some interested students as well as some select group of listeners.
