Summary: The program was attended by 381 final year undergraduate students along with faculty members of various departments of Surendranath College. It started with a key note from Dr. Indranil Kar, Principal, Surendranath College. Followed by Project Coordinator of La Martiniere Seomp Society, Mr. Prabir Dutta, who talked about how difficult it is for students to plan regarding their choice career for the upliftment of the standard of living. Given the employment scenario, he talked about how it is important to start searching for jobs right after graduation. He then introduced different job opportunities in Govt. as well as Private sectors and their eligibility required. Finally, he motivated the students as to why it is necessary to start their preparation for these jobs at the earliest.

The vote of thanks was given by Dr. Suchandra Chatterjee, Associate Professor, Dept. of Chemistry and IQAC Coordinator Surendranath College.

The workshop was a successful one since it gave a good understanding of current job scenario, also what are the different job options in the all the sectors and motivated the students to start preparing at the earliest.
